Dynamo

By Todd Stalter

Dynamo was written in celebration of the career of an administrator who was a staunch supporter of music, and known for being highly energetic and always “on the move” in her building; one never knew where she was going to turn up next. The piece mimics these characteristics by opening with a large release of energy, and the melodic motives that follow bounce around the ensemble unexpectedly. The piece is written in the Mixolydian mode, and the modal melodies and altered cadences further establish a sense of surprise.
